

Interactive Work Group – interpretation of European documents
(Diploma Supplement)

Who is the holder of qualification?
What is the name of the study programme completed?
The nominal length of the degree?
Was the degree completed within the nominal length?
What is the main field of study?
What is the name of the qualification awarded?
What is the level of the qualification?
What requirements had to be fulfilled in order to enter the study programme?
Can you find number of obligatory study points/ECTS credits for this particular qualification?
When was the degree awarded?
What is the function of this qualification? Does it give access to further studies? Has it professional status?
What institution issued the document?
What was the language of instruction?
Can you find information about the details of the study programme taken?

What is the credit system and grading in this institution?
Is there any information about the national education system?	